Historic Farnsworth Avenue Property Sells

BORDENTOWN, NJ, June 20, 2019 – Built in the 1800's as the Bordentown Banking Company, the stately building at 300 Farnsworth Avenue has had a number of uses over the years, including serving as an ice cream parlor and restaurant. Richardson Commercial Realtors® recently arranged the sale of the 2,625± square-foot historic property in downtown Bordentown.

Steven Marusky, CCIM of Richardson Commercial, was the listing agent representing seller, Koncur. Mary Bauer of RE/MAX at Home was the selling agent and represented the buyer, Ten Ten Holdings.

The new owner is exploring several different options for use of the property. The building retains many of its original features and architectural details, including the bank vault and 21-foot ceilings.

“It was a great opportunity for the buyer to own a piece of history,” said Marusky. “The property is in a desirable area with plenty of foot traffic and a wide variety of retail and service businesses nearby.”

A division of one of the Delaware Valley’s premier full-service commercial real estate, appraisal and property management firms, Richardson Commercial prides itself in combining education, marketing savvy, seasoned counsel and an in-depth knowledge of the Central Jersey and Eastern Pennsylvania markets to successfully sell properties and help clients reach their investment goals. The Richardson Commercial umbrella also includes the Richardson Management Group and Lexington Appraisal Group. For more information, please visit richardsoncommercial.com.
